

ST. JAMES THE APOSTLE AND OUR LADY OF THE LAKE/MOUNT CARMEL IS A ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH WITH THE EUCHARIST AS THE CENTER OF ITS LIFE. OUR MISSION, AS DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST, IS TO BUILD UP THE KINGDOM OF GOD BY LEADING, NOURISHING AND SERVING THE COMMUNITY IN WORD AND SACRAMENT.

From the Desk of Szymon, Greetings from Poland!

May 15, 2016

The story of the Tower of Babel is the first reading for the vigil Masses of Pentecost. It is meant to set-up a radical contrast to the events of Pentecost. In the first reading for the Sunday Masses of Pentecost, the disciples of Jesus received the Holy Spirit and then proclaimed the Gospel of Christ to the people who were in Jerusalem. People from all over the known world heard the disciples in their own language. The apostles were really just talking, but the Spirit they had received was speaking. According to the Acts of the Apostles, three thousand people became Christian that day. They were united by their determination to spread the Gospel. They were united by the Holy Spirit.

Let's look at those first apostles. How could it ever be possible that commoners from Palestine would have the power to lead the world to Jesus Christ? These men seldom left Galilee. And yet by the time they died, people in Greece, Macedonia, Asia Minor, Italy, Egypt, Ethiopia and other sections of Africa, and India and other parts of Asia, perhaps even as far west as Spain, were all calling Christ their Lord. These men and women did not do this; the Holy Spirit did this. They talked. The Spirit spoke. The world listened, and many followed.

The Holy Spirit is also powerful in our time. We have received this Power at our own personal Pentecost; our confirmation. We are now capable of transforming lives, even capable of transforming the world. But we have to be willing to talk for the world to hear the Holy Spirit speak. The disciples who were locked up in that Upper Room on Pentecost Sunday received the Spirit and then left their hiding place and publically proclaimed Jesus Christ. Before Pentecost they feared being caught and killed; after Pentecost they feared not being true to the Spirit.

In the second reading for Pentecost, St. Paul writes to the Corinthians: "No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. (1 Cor. 12:3-7). We need to use the spiritual gifts we have received so others can find Christ. We each have powerful ways of bringing others to Christ. We each have a share in the Holy Spirit. We need to talk so the Spirit can speak. We need to talk so others can hear the Spirit. St. Francis of Assisi said: "Preach the Gospel at all times, and if necessary, use words." We need to talk with our lives.

In the Upper Room Jesus said to His disciples, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when He said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit". We have been empowered to bring peace to a world that longs to be rescued from chaos. May we have the courage to talk with our lives so the Spirit can speak to the hearts of many.

Readings for Pentecost Sunday

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11 - The disciples were celebrating Pentecost together when "tongues of fire appeared which parted, then came to rest on each of them." The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in foreign tongues.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 - Each person has received different manifestations of the same spirit to contribute to the common good of all. All members of the church have been baptized into one body because of our belief in the Holy Spirit, who was sent to us by God

Gospel: John 20:19-23 Jesus appeared to the disciples even though they had locked the doors in fear. Jesus then showed the disciples his hands and his side; and they rejoiced at his presence. He breathed on them saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." He then gave the disciples the power to forgive others or hold them accountable for their sins.

Come join us for an evening of praise and worship through song, a quiet time of scripture reading and sharing how God is working in our lives, followed by intercessory prayer, for the intentions of our Pope Francis and all our clergy, for our parish, our own intentions and for those who have asked us to pray. The Prayer Group is open to all parishioners, both young and old. Please join us for a peaceful evening away from the busyness of the day to be with Our Lord.

MEN OF ST. JAMES

The "Men of St. James" come together for prayer and discussion to make what the Pope is calling for a reality here at St. James Church. It is also a place to re-ignite the fire that may have grown dim or just to meet other men who are also trying to be faithful Catholic men. We meet on the 2nd and 4th Saturday's at 7:00AM in the Carriage House. Come. "Open the door." They called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith..." (Acts 14:27)

ST. SEBASTIAN'S TERRACE AND COLUMBARIUM

186 purchased - 266 Niches still available

Our Terrace and Columbarium are open. We have already celebrated Mass at the new Altar and have 89 niches engraved and interred. The price of a niche is $2,500, which gives you the right to inter the remains of two people. If you have been thinking of purchasing a niche, and would like to schedule an appointment, please contact Mrs. Maureen Larkin at 845-225-2079 on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

For those of you not familiar with a Columbarium, it is a Latin word that describes a collection of niches to house urns containing cremated human remains. Usually inscribed with the person's name and dates of birth and death, columbaria are constructed to serve as permanent resting places for our loved ones in a 'churchyard' or landscaped terrace. May the Lord who has blessed this project now be a final resting place for many of our loved ones.

St. James Youth Group

On May 7th, the Young Apostles of St. James went on pilgrimage to Graymoor, here's what they had to say about the trip:

"I found it very peaceful and beautiful. The shrines and chapels were gorgeous, and the mountain itself was, too. It was hard work, but it was fun and I'm proud of how the flowers turned out." Emily

"The planting of the flowers was a great way to get away from reality and just witness the beauty of God's creation." Drane

"Planting the flowers and going on the pilgrimage really shows how the youth group is focused on the good of others and the environment." Heather

"I had so much fun planting the flowers for Graymoor. It allowed me not only to give back to the community but also gave me an opportunity to connect more closely with friends and with the other youth present, who were just as excited to be a part of the project as we were." Rebecca
