Humble and Trusting Prayer

Today's gospel reading (Luke 18:9-14) presents us with the parable of the Pharisee and the Publican who went to the Temple to pray. According to this parable, the Pharisee thanked God for his righteousness while the tax collector being mindful of his sins asked God for pardon. Surprisingly, Jesus approved only the prayer of the Publican and was dissatisfied with the prayer of the Pharisee. Ordinarily speaking, there is nothing wrong in thanking God for living a righteous life. This Pharisee is supposedly a devout Jew who lived even longer than he was expected. He recognized the need for thanksgiving and went ahead to thank God. As the object of his thanksgiving, he presented his religious credentials.

However, there are a number of issues associated with his prayer. He was not wrong in his methodology but in his disposition. In his prayer, we see a feeling of superiority over others especially sinners. When we flaunt our religious credentials, we are no better than this Pharisee. Most often we boast of how piously we have lived our lives. A catholic in the shoes of this Pharisee is likely to thank God for being a good catholic and not a protestant or non-Christian. He may boast of receiving communion, going to confession and fulfilling his financial obligations.

Though it is good to keep a clean religious record, we have to recognize that our piety does not make us superior to others. That is why we have to shun every feeling of vain glory in our spiritual lives. This is totally against the attitude of those who for one donation or the other made to the Church expect to exert undue influence in pastoral affairs. Some of us, because of a service rendered to the Church, may think that they have outweighed everybody in charity.

Today the Lord invites us to approach Him with humility and contrition. He wants to see us accuse ourselves that he may set us free. Therefore, today let us ask God for the grace to always appear before Him with humility and contrition so that at the end, His grace may qualify us for the crown of unfading glory.

Readings for This Week – 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

God is just and does not show favoritism, but hears the prayers of everyone. Anyone who serves God, no matter how lowly his position here on earth, will be heard.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Paul writes to Timothy that he thinks his mission is near the end, and he is glad his faith is still strong. Paul hopes that all nations will hear the gospel.

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

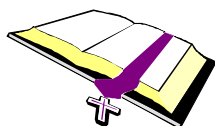

Jesus' tells a parable about a Pharisee who went to the temple and offered up a prayer of thanks because he was not a sinner like the tax collector. Jesus said the tax collector was far more humble, acknowledging his sins and asking forgiveness.

ST. SEBASTIAN'S TERRACE AND COLUMBARIUM

197 Purchased - 255 Niches Still Available

We have celebrated Mass at the Altar of our Terrace and Columbarium many times. There are 90 niches engraved and interred. The price of a niche is $2,500, which gives you the right to inter the cremains of two people. If you have been thinking of purchasing a niche, and would like to schedule an appointment, please call Mrs. Maureen Larkin at 845-225-2079 on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

For those of you not familiar with a Columbarium, it is a Latin word that describes a collection of niches to house urns containing cremated human remains. Usually inscribed with the person's name and dates of birth and death, columbaria are constructed to serve as permanent resting places for our loved ones in a 'churchyard' or landscaped terrace. We pray that the Lord who has blessed this project, become a final resting place for many of our loved ones.

From the Parish Nurse Breast Cancer Detection

There are a number of tools used to monitor breast tissue and detect abnormalities. Some of these tests include:

Clinical Breast Exam: A manual exam performed by your physician (usually your gynecologist). This is typically performed yearly.

Mammogram: Usually performed once every two years for women in their 40's. For women under 40, it may be recommended if she has certain risk factors.

Ultrasound: Uses sound waves to show whether a mass is solid or fluid filled.

MRI: Detailed picture using powerful magnets and shows normal tissue versus diseased tissue.

Needle Biopsies: Performed when a mass is detected.

- Fine needle biopsy*- uses a very thin needle to extract fluid/cells
- Core biopsy*- uses a wide bore needle to extract a piece of tissue
- Surgical biopsy*- removes a piece of tissue for microscopic examination and diagnosis.

Next week: Treatment

If you have any questions or suggestions for topics that you would like to see covered, leave your name and number at the parish office for Susan to contact you, or you may e-mail her at saa38@aol.com. Place "Parish Nurse" in subject area.

Letter from St. James Confirmation Candidates to Msgr. Marchitelli

Each Confirmation Candidate was asked to write a personal letter indicating their desire to be confirmed. Please pray for these young people as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

I am August Autieri. I have three brothers and a dog. I go to George Fisher Middle School. I play soccer, cross country and wrestling. I am in the Go Green Club where we recycle the schools recycling.

Being catholic is very important to me because I believe that Jesus is our savior and died on the cross for us and he will come to judge the living and the dead. My mom is a very good example of being a good catholic. She is an example to me because she is always helping others, for example she has been a C.C.D. teacher for twenty years. Also she shows kindness when others don't.

What I don't understand is why Jesus doesn't have many bible stories when he was a child. I also don't understand why Peter betrayed Jesus. My mass attendance is ok, but I plan to attend every mass as I enter Confirmation.

I feel I am ready to receive the sacrament of confirmation because I have been getting ready for seven years and I feel I have been matured in the catholic faith. It is important to me because this sacrament means that I am getting closer to God, and this is my last sacrament in C.C. D.

In conclusion I think I am ready to be confirmed in the catholic faith.
