

ST. JAMES THE APOSTLE AND OUR LADY OF THE LAKE/MOUNT CARMEL IS A ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH WITH THE EUCHARIST AS THE CENTER OF ITS LIFE. OUR MISSION, AS DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST, IS TO BUILD UP THE KINGDOM OF GOD BY LEADING, NOURISHING AND SERVING THE COMMUNITY IN WORD AND SACRAMENT.

Be All That You Can Be! Be a Christian!

At his installation as Archbishop, Edward Egan told this touching story of compassion and healing in the midst of anguish and despair. When he was an auxiliary Bishop in New York, Bishop Egan traveled to one of the poorest areas of Brooklyn to ordain five young men as deacons for the congregation of priests and brothers founded by Mother Teresa. Mother Teresa herself and many of her Sisters of Charity were there. It was hot afternoon and the heat and humidity were stifling. After the Rite of Ordination, Bishop Egan proceeded to the altar for the Eucharist Prayer. Suddenly shouts were heard from the rear of the Church. Everyone turned and saw a man of about 30 years of age lunging up the aisle. This face was covered with blood; he waved a bloody T-shirt in the air, begging for help amid his shouts and sobs. Mother Teresa led two of her sisters and two ushers and gently carried the man to the sacristy. Eventually, the Mass was able to continue.

At the end of the Mass, a young man came up to Bishop Egan and asked if they could talk. "I have to talk to someone" the young man said. "I was in the sacristy when the bloodied man was carried in. He had been beaten badly and his language was terrible. But never in my life had I seen anything like the way he was treated. Mother Theresa, her two sisters, the pastor and two laymen were wonderful. They calmed the man, they washed the blood off him. They found him a clean shirt and they arranged a place for him for the night. "It was everything that Jesus Christ had ever taught. It was everything, Father, which Jesus Christ had ever taught". The man paused to gain control of his emotions and went on. "I'm making a whole pile of money in the stock market. But I need to be part of what I witnessed in that sacristy. The money isn't doing it. I need something more".

Bishop Egan and the young man stayed in touch. He accepted the young man as a seminarian and ordained him to the priesthood four year later. Within a year after his ordination, he was stricken with leukemia, and after months of suffering, went to his God. But he has realized his hope of becoming part of the reality of the compassion and mercy of Christ.

What that young man witnessed in that sacristy and yearned to be a part of, is articulated by St. Peter's simple confession when some of the disciples found the words of Jesus too much to take and left him. Jesus said to Peter and the remaining disciples, "will you too leave me"? Peter replied on behalf of them, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life". The faithful disciple understood that God is the ultimate source of everything that is good. Despite our own doubts, fears and misgivings, we know in the depths of our hearts that in the end, the words of Jesus will triumph. We mourn God's seeming absence at certain times of our life, but we know we rediscover God in acts of love, generosity, support and healing given by us extend to us by others just as Mother Teresa and the Sisters of Charity did and that beleaguered man in the sacristy did and the young man who witnessed it did. We don't have to become a priest to lead a meaningful life. We have to be a Christian.

ST. SEBASTIAN'S TERRACE AND COLUMBARIUM

197 Purchased - 255 Niches Still Available

We have celebrated Mass at the Altar of our Terrace and Columbarium many times. There are 90 niches engraved and interred. The price of a niche is $2,500, which gives you the right to inter the remains of two people. If you have been thinking of purchasing a niche, and would like to schedule an appointment, please call Mrs. Maureen Larkin at 845-225-2079 on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

For those of you not familiar with a Columbarium, it is a Latin word that describes a collection of niches to house urns containing cremated human remains. Usually inscribed with the person's name and dates of birth and death, columbaria are constructed to serve as permanent resting places for our loved ones in a 'churchyard' or landscaped terrace. We pray that the Lord who has blessed this project, become a final resting place for many of our loved ones.

From the Parish Nurse Alzheimer's Disease

There are several stages of Alzheimer's disease. Below is a short synopsis of each:

Stage 1: No impairment- normal function

Stage 2: Very mild cognitive decline: The individual may notice memory lapses (forgetting familiar words or the location of common objects), but dementia symptoms are not picked up by family, friends, or medical providers.

Stage 3: Mild cognitive decline: Family and friends are starting to notice problems; doctors may be able to detect problems with memory or concentration. Common difficulties during this stage include noticeable problems coming up with the right word, trouble remembering names when introduced to people, have noticeably greater difficulty performing tasks in social or work settings, losing or misplacing valuable objects, increasing trouble with planning and organizing.

Stage 4: Moderate cognitive decline: Forgetful of recent events, impaired ability to perform challenging mental arithmetic, greater difficulty performing complex tasks (planning a dinner party, paying bills, managing finances), forgetfulness about one's own personal history, becoming moody or withdrawn.

Stage 5: Moderate-severe cognitive decline: Gaps in memory are noticeable and individuals need help with day to day activities. Individuals may be unable to recall their own address, be confused about where they are or what day it is, need help getting dressed and choosing proper clothing, need assistance eating or using the bathroom.

Stage 6: Severe cognitive decline: Memory continues to worsen, individual needs extensive help with activities of daily living, and major personality changes (delusions or suspicion). At this stage individual may lose awareness of recent experiences and their surroundings, experience major changes in sleep patterns, have increasing difficulty controlling bowel and bladder functions, tend to wander and become lost.

Stage 7: Very severe cognitive decline: Individuals lose the ability to respond to their environment, carry on a conversation, and control movement. They may still be able to say words or phrases.

They require help with all care and may lose muscle function (affecting ability to smile, sit, swallow, and hold head up).

Letter from St. James Confirmation Candidates to Msgr. Marchitelli

Each Confirmation Candidate was asked to write a personal letter indicating their desire to be confirmed. Please pray for these young people as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

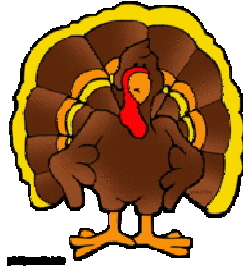

My name is Emily Katherine Barrett. I am mostly an independent person and I like working on projects independently instead of in groups, as I work better when I work alone. Music is a major influence in my life. My family is a big part of my life as well. They are supportive of me and help me if I ask for it. I do well in school and I am in honors classes. I am an athlete; I play volleyball and softball. Religion is one of the biggest influences in my life.

The Christian Faith is very important to me being a Catholic. It is a part of who I am as a person and my family. I know that the wine and bread are Jesus and not just a symbol. It's an important statement that makes me different from other Christians. My grandmother is a good example of a good Catholic she always is at Mass and is kind to everyone, as a good Catholic should be. My grandmother is caring and loving and loves her religion and is a good example to follow. My great aunt is also an example of a good Catholic because she is a Nun. She has been with the Ursuline Sisters for over fifty years. She serves God and gives back to her community.

Even after eight years of learning about my religion, I still have some questions. One big question is what causes people to believe in other gods instead of the one true God? Another question I have is what really caused Lucifer to break away from Heaven?

My Mass attendance is low lately but it is something I need to change in order to become a better Catholic. I can honestly promise that I will participate in Mass as I prepare to make my Confirmation. I also promise to attend Mass after I am confirmed. I believe I am ready to make my Confirmation. It is getting me ready to be a better Catholic and person. It is important for me to make my Confirmation because it makes me an adult in the church and I will be more responsible.

I consider myself to be good Catholic but if I keep attending Mass and make my Confirmation, I will be better. I look forward to being an adult in the church and being more mature and responsible for my own actions and look forward to being confirmed.
