

ST. JAMES THE APOSTLE AND OUR LADY OF THE LAKE/MOUNT CARMEL IS A ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH WITH THE EUCHARIST AS THE CENTER OF ITS LIFE. OUR MISSION, AS DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST, IS TO BUILD UP THE KINGDOM OF GOD BY LEADING, NOURISHING AND SERVING THE COMMUNITY IN WORD AND SACRAMENT.

From the Desk of Fr. Adolphus Muoghalu

"Pride must die in you or nothing of heaven can live in you"

The spirit of today's readings flows from the continuation of Luke's Gospel and how Jesus continues offering reversals. Our First Reading from Sirach echoes traditional Jewish teachings concerning right conduct. Basically these verses say, "Remember who you are and who you are not." Humility is gratitude which allows us to stay at home in our own shoes. Covering up or withdrawal is not being humble or shy, it is a prideful expression that we really should have been created with more gifts and until they appear, we will not.

Luke has Jesus responding to an invitation to dine at a leading Pharisee's house and on the Sabbath. The other invitees are watching quite specifically to trap him violating their religious expectations, early forerunners of "Liturgical Police". During the meal Jesus notices the pharisaical practices of these religious rigorists. They have been jockeying for places of honor and recognition. Jesus heightens their interest in him by relating a little parable intended to indicate their hypocrisy.

This parable reminds us of the need to know our place, to avoid being blinded by ambition and letting life become a frantic pursuit of ever greater goals, for which in many cases we are unqualified and which sooner or later would cause us to be humiliated. Ambition, one of the forms of pride, is often the cause of deep dissatisfaction in the person who suffers from it. Everybody has a natural tendency (which in its proper place can be good and noble) for honor and glory. Ambition is simply a disordered tendency to look for honor, to exercise authority, or to have a position that is in some way superior, or at least appears to be so. True humility on the other hand, is not opposed to the legitimate desire for personal advancement in social life, to enjoying the necessary professional prestige, to receiving the honor which is due to every human being. The humble person doesn't like showing off. The humble person knows that his/her aim is not to shine and be highly regarded, but to carry out a mission for God and for others.

Jesus states clearly to the host that when he invites his friends and the wealthy to dine, they can repay you and you have your reward. Use your dining facilities and wealth to care for those who cannot repay you here, but the Divine Host Who has set your table, will then repay you in the eternal banquet of the just. Humility gives consistency to all the virtues. In a special way, the humble person respects others, their opinions and their things, and possesses a special fortitude, because he/she relies constantly on the goodness and omnipotence of God: when I am weak, then I am strong, says St. Paul.

Let us be kind to one another!

Readings for this Week, 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Those who are humble will find favor with God. Everyone should realize that there is much we can learn from each other. Even the most knowledgeable people need to be humble enough to know that they can still learn from others.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Hebrews are informed that they are not approaching an untouchable mountain etched with gloom and fear. Rather, they have neared "the city of the living God, Jerusalem." The Hebrews have approached a joyful gathering of angels, God our judge, and Jesus, who brought us a new covenant.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus went to share a meal with one of the leading Pharisees when he noticed other guests competing for places of honor at the table. He warned that a guest who takes the place of honor may be asked to move to the lowest place. Yet a guest who takes the lowest place is honored when a better position is offered by their host. He then added, "He who humbles himself will be exalted."

ST. SEBASTIAN'S TERRACE AND COLUMBARIUM

192 purchased - 260 Niches still available

We have celebrated Mass at the Altar of our Terrace and Columbarium many times. There are 89 niches engraved and interred. The price of a niche is $2,500, which gives you the right to inter the remains of two people. If you have been thinking of purchasing a niche, and would like to schedule an appointment, please contact Mrs. Maureen Larkin at 845-225-2079 on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

For those of you not familiar with a Columbarium, it is a Latin word that describes a collection of niches to house urns containing cremated human remains. Usually inscribed with the person's name and dates of birth and death, columbaria are constructed to serve as permanent resting places for our loved ones in a 'churchyard' or landscaped terrace. May the Lord who has blessed this project now be a final resting place for many of our loved ones.

From the Parish Nurse

Back to School - Scabies

Scabies is an infestation of the skin by the microscopic mite Sarcoptes scabiei. Scabies is found world-wide and spreads rapidly under crowded conditions where there is frequent skin to skin contact between people. Hospitals, institutions, child care facilities and nursing homes need to be especially vigilant.

Signs and symptoms include pimple like irritations, burrows or rash of the skin, especially the webbing between the fingers, skin folds of the wrist, elbow or knee or other areas where skin folds are present, intense itching (especially at night) over most of the body, and sores on the body caused by scratching.

Unlike the bed bug, once mites are away from their food source (the body) they die within 48-72 hours.

Treatment includes a topical prescription lotion to treat the infection. Always follow the instructions exactly. Apply it from the neck down to the toes and leave it on overnight (8 hours). After 8 hours, take a shower, put on clean clothes, wash all clothes, bedding, towels used by the infested person for the two days before the treatment, and dry them in a hot dryer.

A second treatment with the body lotion may be necessary 7-10 days later. Pregnant women and children are often treated with milder form of scabies medication.

Itching may continue for 2-3 weeks, but that does not mean you are still infested. Your physician may be able to provide medication for the itching if it is severe. No new burrows should appear 24-48 hours after effective treatment.

Saint James Parish Pilgrimage to the Shrine of Divine Mercy

Saturday, October 15, 2016

Pope Francis inaugurated the extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy on Dec. 8, urging the faithful to come to know the face of God's mercy — Jesus Christ — and to show that face of mercy to our friends, neighbors, and enemies alike.

"This extraordinary Holy Year is itself a gift of grace," Pope Francis said in his homily for the Jubilee's opening Mass, just before opening the Holy Door in St. Peter's Basilica. Only hours later, the Marian Fathers in Stockbridge, Massachusetts, opened a newly installed Holy Door of their own at the inside entrance to the National Shrine of The Divine Mercy. Indeed, at the request of Pope Francis, for the first time in the 700-year-old tradition of Jubilee years, dioceses around the world opened their own Holy Doors at specific pilgrimage locations.

The Shrine in Stockbridge was selected by the Most Rev. Mitchell T. Rozanski, the bishop of the Diocese of Springfield, Massachusetts, to be among the dioceses official Jubilee Year destinations.

- Depart Saint James Parking Lot at 8:00 AM by Charter bus. Limited to 54 passengers
- Arrive at 10:00 AM in Stockbridge for a 90 minute visit to the Norman Rockwell Museum.
- Day includes Confessions, Mass, Holy Hour, Talk, and the Holy Door.
- Bring your own picnic lunch and snacks for the trip home.
